TRUE TILT PROFILE

Are you a Cross Pollinator, Master Mind, Change Catalyst, or Quiet Genius?

We created the True Tilt Profile to help individuals throughout organizations quickly rise above the inefficiency, destructive leadership, drama, politics, lack of accountability, scapegoating, and other annoyances present in many workplaces by using their preferred strengths more effectively.

Why is this better than a traditional personality assessment?

Since science now realizes that people are too complicated to just be labeled a type, we created the True Tilt Profile to help you discover yourself and your preferred character strengths in a positive, conversational, easy-to-use way. 20 or so pages of deep, personalized, actionable insights all about you and how the Tilt 365 model can help you understand, appreciate, and strengthen your true self from the inside out.

So what's in it for you?

How about an opportunity to transform your life with increased productivity, well-being, and happiness to start? With the True Tilt Profile, you learn not only about your character strengths, but also why you work best with certain people and perhaps not so well with others. Your True Tilt report will indicate a set of patterns that is most likely to present when you are under stress and is also what you may tend to over-rely upon at such times so you can tend to overuse them.

AGILE THE POSITIVE INFLUENCER

When you have developed balance in all of the character traits part of the Tilt Model, then you are able to lean into whatever is needed in a given context. You balance taking action with consideration of others and innovation with grounded thinking.
